Jennifer Vazquez

With Jennifer's recent success on the forefront – two of her songs (including her new single "Getting Out Of My Own Way") are being featured in the hit HBO comedy, Sleeping With The Fishes, starring Golden Globe Winner, Gina Rodriguez (CW's Jane the Virgin) – an idea popped into her head. "Why not showcase one of those songs as a music video!"

Jennifer shared this idea with award winning directors, Nicole Gomez Fisher (writer and director of Sleeping With The Fishes) and "Nimer" Neem Basha. Through their collaboration, Jennifer shot a music video for her single "Getting Out Of My Own Way," which appears at the end title crawl of Sleeping With The Fishes; her words and music tell a captivating and unforgettable story on the screen.

With the official release of this music video comes the debut of Jen's new website, establishing a fresh look and feel for this Bronx born, sixteen-time ASCAPlu$ Award Winner and infectious triple threat: inspirational singer/songwriter, vibrant musician and illustrious performer.

Jennifer's extensive touring as a solo and duo act has created a loyal and supportive community. As Ron Zabrocki says, "Jennifer Vazquez is what we call in the studio world a gift...a rare gift. Jen's songs are original and engaging. Her voice is expressive and conversational with never a need for tuning! ...her music is destined to be heard in every form of media."
